

Multi-hazards approach and COVID19: Flattening the Curve and Early Recovery Lessons

Wednesday, June 17, 2020 (90 minutes)

1 pm (Sydney)/12 pm (Tokyo/Seoul)/11 am (Hong Kong/Manila)/10 am (Bangkok)

Tuesday, June 16, 2020 (90 minutes)

8 pm Pacific Time (US & Canada)

Coronavirus disease (COVID 19) has caused devastating damage to the whole world and shown how important it is to prepare for a pandemic as hard as other disasters. Some countries are in the early phase of recovery after going through extremely difficult times and experiences. This webinar aims to share these experiences and the lessons learnt from the response and recovery by different sectors: UN agency, governments, the private sector, and academia.

Register now : <https://www.apruplus.org/june-17-webinar>

Dr. Christopher Tremewan
Secretary General, APRU

Prof. Rajib Shaw
Graduate School of Media and Governance,
Keio University, Japan

Ms. Loretta Hieber Girardet
Chief of Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific
United Nations Office for Disaster Risk Reduction

Dr. Yong-kyun Kim
Director General,
National Disaster and Safety Control Center,
Ministry of Interior and Safety, South Korea

Ms. Antonia Yulo Loyzaga
President of the National Resilience Council,
Philippines/ Chairperson of the International Advisory Board of the Manila Observatory

Associate Prof. Takako Izumi
International Research Institute of Disaster Science,
Tohoku University, Japan /
Director of APRU Multi-Hazards Program