

2022 APRU Multi-Hazards Webinar Series:

Reimagining humanitarian architecture for the future in a complex era

February 25, 2022 (90mins)

8am (Geneva), 2pm (Bangkok/Jakarta), 3pm (Hong Kong/Kuala Lumpur/Manila), 4pm (Tokyo), 6pm (Sydney), 8pm (Auckland)

REGISTER

Speakers

Oliver Lacey-Hall
Lead Adviser,
Regional Sub-Program,
SIAP SIAGA Indonesia

Jessica Alexander
Policy Editor,
The New Humanitarian

Miwa Hirono
Associate Professor,
Graduate School of International Relations, Ritsumeikan University

Takako Izumi (Moderator)
Associate Professor,
IRIDeS, Tohoku University
Director, APRU Multi-Hazards
Program

The experience of the COVID-19 pandemic opened our eyes to the complexity and challenges in providing effective humanitarian assistance under conditions with compound hazards. How should we strengthen our response capacity as part of disaster preparedness and risk reduction? This session invites the speakers who have vast experience in humanitarian assistance, policy framework, and research.

Contact

Dr. Takako Izumi, Ms Sayaka Kobayashi,
IRIDeS, Tohoku University
Email: application\_apruss@irides.tohoku.ac.jp